INSPIRED BEAUTY

Laura Kirar

Michael S. Smith

For Town Collection

Inspired by the cinematic architecture of the 1930s and 1940s, the pieces feel appropriate in a variety of kitchen and bath environments – from a traditional New York apartment to a Mediterranean house in Bel Air.

by Michael S. Smith

Tuxedo Collection

Barbara Barry explored the inherent beauty of antique sterling flatware as the driving inspiration for the Tuxedo collection. It introduces a refined simplicity ideal for a classic tile-and-marble bathroom as well as a modern, minimalist décor.

by Barbara Barry

Vir Stil Collection

In her Vir Stil collection for KALLISTA, Laura Kirar marries compelling design details with beautiful modern forms. Laura juxtaposes several key design influences, from Danish modern to Bauhaus, ultimately creating something that is thoroughly unique, thoroughly beautiful.

by Laura Kirar

Per Se Collection

Per Se is a faucet collection that embodies slender, soft modern minimalism. Meaning "in itself," Per Se embraces its name with an aesthetic that has an intuitively beautiful base form and is welcoming with thoughtful composition.

by Kallista Collection

Taper by BIG Collection

The Taper Collection for KALLISTA is designed by acclaimed, technologically savvy architect Bjarke Ingels founder of New York and Copenhagen-based BIG Bjarke Ingels Group – who has earned a reputation for creating tradition-defying sustainably minded buildings and projects. This collection marries form and function with architectural lines and an unmistakably urban vibe.

by Bjarke Ingels

Bellis Collection

The Bellis Collection is reminiscent of the classic plumbing vernacular of the 1920s. Inspired by tapping into a hint of past comfortable traditional forms, it has sculptural elements that feel soft to the touch. Knurling detail in the faucet bonnet and soft form make the collection appropriate for relaxed traditional settings.

by Kallista Collection

One Collection

Sophisticated modern, the One Collection by KALLISTA infuses minimalist design elements with the essence of warmth and generosity. Embracing the discipline of geometry simply and completely, the One Collection blends precision with thoughtfully proportioned components.
